The Board of Education has recognized the above days of religious observance whenever they may fall on a day when school is in session. With the exception of December 25 and January 1, these days are not legal holidays. Attendance registers should be maintained as on other days of session.

Note: All Jewish religious holidays listed on the calendar actually begin at sundown on the day before the listed date. If possible, school activities should not be scheduled on the evening prior to a Jewish religious holiday.
