Andrew Chesterton – Band

This 10th grade scholarship recipient states:

“Whether I knew it or not, music has been a big part of my life. Since 8th grade it has been one of the biggest and most important things in my life. I love the way it makes me and others feel and the connection formed between everyone performing together.”

Sophia Adonailo – Orchestra

This 10th grade scholarship recipient states:

“In third grade I began learning the viola. I chose to learn this instrument due to its solemn and deep tone, something about that spoke to me. Each musical era has their own distinct styles, yet has room for interpretation. In fact, as you progress as a musician, I feel that it’s not only the difficulty of the notes, but also how one interprets the piece in order to evoke a response in the listener.”

Reid Plonsky – Piano

This 11th grade scholarship recipient states:

“I have toured several college campuses since September. I have looked at BFA Theater and Sound/Audio Technology programs at both liberal arts colleges and conservatories. As part of Sound /Audio technology programs, I will be required to complete two years of piano courses. I feel that piano lessons will also help me improve my song writing skills. I play, sing and write music every day. I can’t imagine my life without it. It helps me deal with stress and makes me happy. I know my life will always include music.”

Tina Johnson – Art

This 11th grade scholarship recipient states:

“Visual Arts have always been a part of my life. My mother would always tell me stories of how I had such an ‘artistic’ mind and would often catch me doodling around. This scholarship would help me take matters into my own hands and pursue a passion that has taken me like a prince to a white horse.”

Kaitlyn Ganly – Band

This 6th grade scholarship recipient states:

“Playing music is calming to me, it is hard for me to pay attention sometimes in school and I look forward to playing music. I come home and try to teach myself new things when I don’t have lessons or school work. My goal is to play many instruments and to teach one day. I don’t come from a musical family but they love listening to me play, and that makes me so happy.”

Ryan Borruso – Band

This 7th grade scholarship recipient states:

“Trumpet is one of my favorite instruments to play and to listen to. It is soothing but also can play a lot of different types of music. If I get this scholarship I could use the money for trumpet lessons. It would definitely help me learn and get better at playing not only trumpet but other instruments as well.”

Ava Notaro – Vocal

This 7th grade scholarship recipient states:

“When I sing I feel happy and focused. When I’m upset, I listen to music. Music is a great therapy and a big part of my life. If awarded the scholarship I would use the money for vocal lessons. In the future, I want to teach music to children because it would allow me to do something I love and help make other people feel as happy about music as I do.”

Andrea Rodriguez – Vocal

This 7th grade scholarship recipient states:

“The best part of my school day is the end, but not why you think. Last period is my escape with chorus. During the day, I can’t get the new songs I earned out of my mind. I could use the scholarship for vocal lessons. This will help strengthen my voice by being able to hold notes longer and widen my vocal range.”

Sumaria Charron – Musical Theatre

This 6th grade scholarship recipient states:

“My interest in the arts began when I started playing piano in first grade. Since then, the arts and music have been an important part of my life. Musical theatre is the discipline I would like to pursue further studies in. Musical theatre has all the components of the arts that I enjoy which include singing, dancing, acting, and music. The arts not only allow you to express your emotions, but also lets you be creative and use your imagination to make a story come to life.”

Isabelle Jocelyn – Musical Theatre

This 8th grade scholarship recipient states:

“Receiving a scholarship would put me closer to my dream of becoming a musical artist on Broadway and in the movies. Being awarded the scholarship would help me go to a musical or drama camp. It would help to discover other styles of music I have not yet been able to explore and help widen my comforts regarding the depths of music.”
